Important Announcements

Hidden Mountain Birthday and Investiture Cancelled!!!

As we are all aware, the plague that has entered our lands has necessitated modifications to planning for many aspects of our lives. The legal authorities have prudently placed limits on the nature and size of social gatherings and the extent of travel in our state and many of its neighbors.

Given the rapidly changing situation, our baronage and baronial officers felt it prudent to consider what additional measures were required to guarantee the safety and wellbeing of our populace and visitors to our lands.

At first, we hoped that the relatively optimistic medical forecasts and loose restrictions imposed by the legal authorities would allow Baronial Birthday and Investiture to go on as planned though with some additional safety measures such as enforcing social distancing, moving more activities outdoors, etc.

Indeed, the baronage, baronial officers and the autocrat came together in a digital meeting to discuss what measures might be required by the rapidly changing recommendations and restrictions of the legal authorities and our own common sense applied to the care of our people. It was a long meeting with passionate voices raised on many points. The consensus was coming closer and closer to the view that the more prudent approach would be to ask the Crown for help in postponing the event until the situation improved.

At that point, however, the decision was taken out of our hands by a telephone communication from the Girl Scouts of Eastern

South Carolina informing us that they had decided the current unsafe situation had forced them to close the Sandy Ridge Girl Scout Camp for the summer so that our site was suddenly unavailable.

Sadly the decision to cancel thus became not only prudent but also unavoidable.

Baronial Investiture Scheduled for Virtual Court on 4 April

In better news Their Majesties Cuan and Signy have been granted a variance by the Board of Directors from the usual requirements for Coronation to allow the Coronation of Their Successors virtually in a digitally broadcast court scheduled for the original date of Coronation: 4 April, 2020.

Having great care for Their Barony of Hidden Mountain, Their Majesties have announced that the baronial transition will not be postponed but will be handled in that virtual Coronation court.

Unfortunately, the legal restrictions on travel and assembly will limit in person attendance at the Coronation court to no more than ten people so neither the outgoing baronage nor their successors will be able to attend in person.

However, in a reversal of the usual practice Their Majesties have agreed to act as proxies for Roibeard and Cecilia for the purpose of bestowing some well-deserved baronial awards and are arranging for members of Their retinue to stand as proxies for Robert and Bridget for the purpose of swearing fealty.

The complete court including the ceremony to crown Anton and Luned will be broadcast live on 4 April via live stream. Check your usual online sources for viewing instructions.
