the BARON & BARONESS

Unto the noble people of Hidden Mountain:

If you have been watching the phase charts from Kingdom, you know that they have been improving. If this trend continues, we could soon be back to in-person activities, and then events. In fact, Their Magesties announced during court at Defending the Gate that they have received a variance to hold Crown Tournament in May.

We hope that many of you were able to attend Baronial Birthday, and take advantage of the classes offered. We wish to thank Lady Esme Bramley for stepping in and Autocrating it for us, Baroness Nezhka Orshinaia for designing the webpage, and all the teachers for sharing their knowledge. We also wish to congratulate our new Champions, Lady Esme Bramley for A&S, Lady Isabella Arabella's Daughter for rapier, Lord David of Hidden Mountain for armored, and Willow Pippen's Daughter for youth armored. Congratulations to Mistress Jorunn nic Lochlainn, Lady Katherine of the Doves, and Lady Isabella Arabella's Daughter; it was our honor to induct each of you into the Order of the Pinnacle of the Mountain. Also, congratulations to Lord David of Hidden Mountain for receiving the Award of the Crimson Cloud, Sabrina Rose for receiving the Award of the Azure Cloud, and Diana of Dair Eadeand and Megan Phippen's Daughter for receiving the Award of the Silver Cloud.

Now that Baronial Birthday is behind us, we look forward to Warriors' Games. We look forward to being together.

Robert and Bridget

the BARONIAL SENESCHAL

Greetings unto the Mountain and its wonderful populace!

I hope everyone is well. The plague is still with us, and we are still not holding in-person events. Let us give thanks that we are still here and many of our friends and family are as well, I encourage everyone to try out the virtual events, including Hospitality Hall and the Baronial Fireside chat.

It is with a sad heart that I announce that I must step down as your Seneschal. It has been a great honor, but the mundane world takes me away. Fortunately, Lord Patris has graciously agreed to take over and we voted him into the position at the March meeting.

The next Baronial Commons will be held virtually on April 10th. Please, I encourage all members of the Barony to attend these meetings and give us your input.

As always, let us keep this medium alive. Please look at the arts/sciences and crafts you do, and consider doing an article for the Mayhem. Share your love of The Society and the time you have spent learning and re-searching things with others. If you have yet to figure out what you want to recreate take a moment and see if something piques your interest, and please share your path of learning with us.

I look forward to seeing everyone again soon, be it at Commons or at the next event, and am forever proud to have served as your Baronial Seneschal.

Baron Ingvar Erlingsson
Seneschal, Barony of Hidden Mountain

the BARONIAL EXCHEQUER

As of this date, the Baronial Checking Account contains $5950.27; the WoW Wall Designated fund contains $365.57 (included in the Baronial total).

I have received my new warrant for another 2-year term, until 3/31/23. I will be actively looking for a drop-dead deputy with, ideally, intent to succeed in 2 years.

The Baronial Trim is on hand! 316 yards have been sold, leaving 184 yards on hand. You can order some for $2.50 per yard, checks made out to “SCA, Inc. – Barony of Hidden Mountain” and sent to me, Robert Himmelsbach, 199 Cabrill Dr., Charleston SC 29414.

The revision of the Baronial Financial Policy to fit it into the format required by Corporate has been done and was accepted by unanimous vote of the Barony on 3/13/2021.

Lord Patris is the new Baronial Seneschal, and is already a signatory on the account; for the Fiscal Committee, by consensus, he will also continue to fill the role of Moorhaven representative. Baron Ingvar will stay on as both a signatory and as a Fiscal Committee member.

the BARONIAL CHRONICLER

Spring has truly settled into its boots here in Hidden Mountain. And just as the buds have broken free from winter's torpor, so too does our barony yearn to open.

But it's with this test that we find our best chance—our chance to serve others by biding our time, by cultivating our inner patience and our best selves. Soon enough we can be fully at each other's sides once more, but until then, do continue to explore the wealth of your own personal resources:

What is your well of knowledge?
How have you cultivated wisdom?
When do you lean on your strengths?

We've all learned so much...and not only practical things, but about ourselves.

Please reengage with your barony by contributing an article (by the 25th of the month), to be included in the upcoming newsletter. Tell us what you've been teaching, studying, and doing, so that we can learn from you as we transition into this new season of our lives. You have so much to share.

We look forward to hearing from you.

In service,

Bran Mydwynter
Chronicler, Barony of Hidden Mountain

BARONIAL BIRTHDAY

a missive from LADY ESME BRAMLEY

Greetings and well met, Hidden Mountain!

This past weekend was our Baronial Birthday! And if you missed it, you missed a really great time!

Wednesday, Mistress Jorunn hosted her Hospitality Hall.

Friday, Baroness Nezhka, our Cousin to the north in Raven's Cove, also Royal Rose Bard, hosted our Baronial Birthday Bardic! We had several performers from our Barony including such notables as Aban, of TearSea Shore, Lady Isabella of Moorhaven, and Lord Seiffred of Tear Sea Shore! In total, there were approximately thirty two individual performers from not only Atlantia, but from Caid and AnTir, as well! Thanks to each performer for the gift of their talents!

Saturday was a day filled to bursting with class! ;D Oh, yes.. classES... many classes full of awesome! Baroness Nezhka started our day with Gryla, a primer on Norse tale telling, followed by Um IsHaq Sarah, a linguist, teaching the History of Arabic Calligraphy and Alphabet. The Lady Argent of Sacred Stone brought to us a class on Mighty Marudai, on a cardboard budget...bringing larger and larger kumihimo braids to the masses in an imminently affordable format. Originally, our last class of the day was set to be an Iron/Viking era class on Finn garb styling, but plans changed, and Lord Alwin of Nottingham Coill saved the day with an immersive and informative class on 15th century bookbinding!

Let it be known that we had ONE entry for our Open Display A&S - Lady Toth Eva displayed her absolutely phenomenal brick stitch pouch. We asked three persons to give her feedback and "judging" (though open display isn't really meant to be judged) for which she is very, very appreciative.

Lady Ceara Novgorod, of Nottingham Coill, and Sir Hrothgar Ravensson offered their talents in the Largess derby. Lady Ceara was declared "winner" of the derby with her baker's dozen childrens balls, handsewn, for the Children's Treasure Chest....but really? Hidden Mountain is the winner, with such wonderful items, including Sir Hrothgar's handmade brass bracelets.

Following our back-to-back class schedule, Their Excellencies Hidden Mountain brought forth our Baronial Court. A very many awards were offered up to exceedingly worth people, as well as Champions listed for each aspect of our Society. Congratulations to each...may we make our Barony shiny and proud with the depth of our skills!

Thank you again to all who supported the event, who attended, and who lent their talents to each step along the way. None of this could have happened without you. To each of you, I say "VIVANT!"

Ever Yours in Service,

Lady Esme Bramley
