Unto the populace of Atlantia, greetings from the Kingdom Seneschal.

Over the past couple of days, there have been some messages online talking about people acting badly, violating the SCA code of conduct, and even insinuations of real world crimes such as assault. I want to take a moment to remind everyone of the procedures for grievances.

First and foremost, if someone commits a violation of real world law, the proper legal authorities should be contacted at once. If this action occurred at an SCA event, please also notify your branch seneschal and me of the occurrence.

If you believe yourself to be the victim of harassment, bullying, discrimination, or anything else, please make a formal complaint through your local branch seneschal, or directly to me. We can not do anything without a written complaint giving details of the situation, dates, times, locations, and witnesses. Simply saying "Lord So-and-so harasses women" will not suffice. We can't go on a fishing expedition looking for bad behavior. I have several investigators whom I work with to determine if a complaint is valid, and if so, what steps should be taken. We must be able to investigate specific incidents, not broad generalities.

Not all incidents will be actionable. Posts made on a person's private social media page are generally out of the jurisdiction of the SCA, except in some circumstances. Complaints with no evidence to support the allegation cannot be acted upon. But all complaints are kept on file, and multiple continuing complaints may indicate a pattern.

If you come to me with a report of bad behavior on the part of someone, I will listen to you and I will take the complaint seriously, no matter who it is against. Rank, office, titles do not matter to me. If it is against someone that I don't feel I can be objective about, for or against, I have people I will hand it off to who can be objective and impartial.

Following an investigation into the complaint, if it is determined to be actionable, I will consult with Their Majesties to jointly determine the next step. There are a variety of steps that may be taken from a reprimand on up to a complete R&D from the Society. Please keep in mind there are rules and procedures that must be followed, and if they are not followed, the BoD may reject the resolution or send it back to be re-done.

If you have any questions about the grievance procedure, or sanctions in general, please don't hesitate to contact me. I won't be able to comment on specifics of any particular complaint investigation, or the results of one, but I may be able to answer general questions about them. Please keep in mind that the privacy of all individuals involved must be respected.

Incidents cannot be investigated unless my office receives a complaint. All complaints are kept confidential, with only those needing to know being informed. Subjects of complaints are not informed of the identity of the complainant.

I take complaints of bullying, harassment, and bad behavior very seriously. But I can not do anything about the issues unless they are reported to me.

Remember, be kind to each other. Respect everyone. It costs nothing to be a good person.

From Their Excellencies

Baron Hrothgar and Baroness Isabella

Greetings and good tidings, Hidden Mountain! We hope this message finds you all well. As we return from the silk road travels with Their Majesties, training for War at BAWT III (Basic Atlantian War Training) we are shaking off the marsh water and resting our caravan. We now prepare for Their Majesties Crown Tournament, to which the caravan will move northward into the Mountains at Elchingburg Castle.

The Baronial Dayshade will be available for the populace to enjoy and seek shelter from the Blazing Sun. We welcome all who would like to contribute to Hospitality, if you wish to do so, contact Anastasia of Moorhaven (Rebekah Pittman).

It is sure to be a great day of honor and pageantry. We hope to see many of you there as we support our Kingdom.

From the Chronicler

Unto the Populous of Hidden Mountain I do send greetings and good cheer.

It is with some misgiving that I send out this, my first newsletter for the Barony. I know it is filled with errors, some larger than others, but it will improve as I get more experience doing this, I promise.

I would like to thank those of you who gave me support as I undertook this journey into Chroniclerdom (not sure if that is a word, but I'll use it). I especially want to thank Bran Mydwynter for providing me with helpful links, advise, and a back copy of the Mountain Mayhem from which I could do a bit of copy and past.

I want this newsletter to be informative and useful to anyone who sees it, so please make suggestions regarding what content you would like to see.

I also would like it to reflect the unique abilities, talents and general wonderfulness of the Barony. To that end I ask each of you to consider submitting photos and stories from events, canton meetings, fighter practices etc. I cannot attend many events due to vision issues, so I must depend upon you to help me out.

Thank you to Knutr Vakrsson and Sir Alain de la Rochelle for contributing this this issue.

Information on how to make submissions is on the next page.

Hidden Mountain 39th Baronial Birthday and Investiture Event Final

I want to extend my deepest appreciation to all who came, had fun, fought, shot arrows, threw axes or knives, entered A&S, ate feast and generally laughed and had fun, but MOST of all I want to thank the folks that helped make everything happen.

- My first thank you goes to his most magnificent Majesty, King Abran I and his Companions, Count Eckhard Thurn, Sir Bryce de Byram, and Lord Balin d'Acier along with his Grace, Duke Olaf Askoldson and not to be forgotten, Baron Robert Blackhawk who went into the kitchen after feast and did cleanup. If I missed someone I apologize, but know that I am grateful. Thank you!
- Lord Aleya Brus and Isabella Fairfax, who decorated the hall with banners, then made sure toilet paper and towels were in each bathroom. THEN after it was all over, took the banners down, swept the floor of the hall and washed the entire floor. Lord Aleya also stood in if anything happened to take me out of the picture. Thank you! Master Geoffrey who kept and managed the reservations that went from 79 to 215 within a 24 hour period. He juggled feast reservations, from cabin spaces and tenting spaces to just day tripping people. Not an easy task. Thank you!
- Baron Elphin who coordinated all the fighting (MIC) and ran the Rapier Bear pit, Cut'n Thrust, and Black Sword tournaments and THL Mathias von Haud who ran the Heavy Bear Pit tournament. Baron Roibeard Mac O'scail ran the Youth fighting tournament. Thank you!
- THLady Cassiene inghen Fhaelain, THLady Niccolina the Wanderer, Lady Qulan, who filled in the MOL table when an illness caused a cancellation at the last minutes. Thank you!
- Baron Naran Numuchi who agreed to run the archery when there was another struck down due to illness. A special Thank you to you!
- Lady Rose Eileen Robertson for stepping in on the last day when there was an injury to the designated Thrown Weapons person and you came in his stead. A special Thank you to you!
- Lady Caitrinia inghean Eoin for running the Arts and Sciences. You also ran the Traveler's Soup in the East Pavilion along with putting up signs for me, Thank you!
- Lady Sophia Eleonora de la Mar for teaching your Canivet class and helping with the Thrown Weapons, and setting up tables and chairs, and taking down tables and chairs. You seemed to be johnny-on-the-spot whenever something was needed. Thank you!
- Mistress Adendra – for coordinating the tent arrangement around the list fields, for knowing how to turn the thermostat down before court, for taking the signs home with you on your way out and all the other many things you do to help during an event, just because you are you. Thank you!
- THLady Esme Bramley for stepping in per their Majesties request to coordinate hospitality table and replacing Lady Anastasia who had other duties to attend and originally had volunteered to do so. Thank you!
- Mistress Alisoun MacCoul for working a successful Heraldic Consultation table. Thank you!
- THLady Katherine of the Doves and Baroness Mor the Merry for running a fun children's activity table in the hall. Thank you!
- Lady Jeremea Gerber who coordinated the merchants and had to 'assist' a merchant who encroached where they weren't supposed to go back to the agreed location. Thank you!
- Baron Ingvar Erlingsson and crew for cooking breakfast Saturday morning. Thank you
- THLady Constantia in der Lachun who AGAIN, cooked a fabulous and tasty feast not to mention that it was documented, and her husband Sir Henrich Wilhelm for the excellent announcements before each remove, her daughter Hildegard von Ansbach for serving high table with grace and elegance. AND all the folks that helped her cook the feast. Thank-you!
- Mistress Tegan de Morton for coordinating the bardic around the Saturday night fire and helping in the kitchen all day. Thank you!
- Lord Wulfgar Ironmanger for starting and monitoring the fire at the firepit Bardic Saturday night. Thank you!
- Lady Diana of Dair Eideand, Lord Thorherr Thorvaldsson, Zachary, Lady Megan Pippinsdaughter, Willow Pippinsdaughter and all the teenagers who helped run errands, set up and take down Pop-ups. I am envious of your unending energy and I applaud you at the same time. Thank you
- Mistress Morwenna who helped direct folks to their tables when they came in for feast. Thank you!
- To all the folks who helped put tables up and take tables down, and set chairs up then putting them away. For everyone who pitched in to make hall adjustments when the court had to be moved in to the hall because the rain gods decided to tease us. THANK YOU!
- Lady Erna Mani who kept checking on me to be sure I wasn't 'dead yet'. Thank you!

After Action Reviews are conducted by professional organization to seek improvement in performance. In the military AARs are a professional discussion of a training event that enables members/units to discover for themselves what happened and develop a strategy for improving performance. There are several questions that must be addressed: A true After Action Review contains the first element of what was supposed to happen.... Followed by what actually happened. We look at the two and determine if we met our mark and achieved what we set out to do.

- If we failed where did we go wrong?
- If we succeeded where did we go right?
- Did our objectives change?
- Did we adjust?
- What were the factors?
- What must be done differently?

By knowing the steps we took to make this happen, we will be able to understand and affect change or keep it rooted in BAWT IV. "BAWT event is designed to develop the Kingdom of Atlantia's Army. This is accomplished by inculcating Combat Archers as a vital entity to our tactics.

This year a modern facility has been procured to enhance training and allow for more participants focusing more on training and less on support requirements."

The over-arching plan was to develop scenarios that incorporated Combat Archers and Armored fighters in force on force melees that included Open Field Battles, Bridge Battle and Keep Battles. Further, we realized that geography would come into play and had to knowing move forward with an understanding that BAWT is only part of a strategy to train Atlantia's Army. 80% of attendance would be southern fighters.. and 20% would come from the northern regions... IF any fighter attended from the north we would go out of our way to make sure they had lodging and were fed. They would have to endure windshield time or coordinate to have their armor transported down to BAWT. The follow up training now is Kings Assessment. Hopefully Armored fighters from the South will make their way north and make a difference.

Training Objectives:

PLANNED AND COMPLETED Authorizations: Armored and Combat Archery
PLANNED AND COMPLETED Battle Formations/Battle Commands
PLANNED AND COMPLETED Force on Force activities- Fight thru and Conquer Scenario
PLANNED AND COMPLETED CoGs Alley -Combined Arms Drill
PLANNED NOT COMPLETED Diverse - Matched Weapons Tourney
PLANNED NOT COMPLETED Five Weapons Challenge to test your stamina.

During the year-long planning process we kept the members informed using a private Facebook page where we could moderate and post updates and keep members excited. This has limitations and it affected the rapier folks who generally have not become members of the armored community and as a result were not on the FB page.

I'll address the functional areas of Facility/Training/Lodging/Sustainment

FACILITY: The facility cost us $950.00. Breakdown is $600.00 for Grounds, $200.00 for the Gym, $150.00 for the cafeteria. The FFA only charged us one day for the Gym ($100.00) and they waived the cafeteria fee as we consumed 40 breakfast meals Friday and 40 breakfast meals Saturday. Although the meal was $13.00... it allowed us to have a facility free. I know that we had 148 persons on site... $15.00 x 148 equates to $2,220 we were definitely in the black this time.

TRAINING: Using the template we had for the first two BAWTs was successful. This BAWT however we weren't as spent trying to train in 90 degree heat with no chance to escape from the heat. One additional feature this site has is the possible use of a fenced in paintball facility that had rubber obstacles inside of it. Ideas of imitating a Allied Champions force on force capture the flag battle and a few limited time resurrection battles was briefly discussed. Issues brought up from the AAR request yielded more time for Combat Archery training and being part of more scenarios.

- A better system to post the schedule that can be used to inform (larger print).
- Authorizations: anyone who is interested in an authorization in a weapons form or new discipline.. they need to make it clear to the respective disciplines marshal. Once known coordination MUST occur with the MoLs who support the event.
- Field Sign in/ Troll Sign in/Armor inspections... We can not take corners in safety measures. These cover us for insurance purposes. We got caught short again... suffice to say we were able to correct the issue before it got out of hand but procedures weren't followed.

LODGING:

A working agreement with the FFA resulted in a cost of $60.00 for a three night stay. Although the accommodations were bunk beds,,, they were all in good repair with HVAC working and modern showers. This was a dorm type setting. The cost of the event although on the surface pricy.. the value was there. Further the FFA allowed us to assign an "Agent" to run check in and assign beds. They relied on us to be fair, and honest... We were, however, "check out procedures" needed to be addressed and clear. Many folks swept and cleaned up their areas however many had filed to mop after they departed. The mops were outside the dorms and many needed new mop heads. We agreed we could pay more attention to this area next time by assigning an "RA" or resident advisor so we could enforce cleanliness and departure conditions. Prior to "kick off" we merely stated we would work to get folks into the same dorms as much as possible. However comments yielded that more certainty to the arrangements needed to be made and transparent. I think we can get to that point. We just needed to get folks into the lodging to see how exceptional the site and conditions were.

- Tent camping was available and four campers used this option. Cost was $30.00 per tent space. So that meant we could get families to "camp" and it would now be cost effective....
- RESTROOM facilities were available and were quite a distance from the field.. further they weren't marked so it was a mystery on how to find and use them... The solution in the future for adjusting this is to use the barracks closest to the melee fields for campers as well as guest alike and MARK IT.

SUSTAINMENT:

- Food/Water. Realizing the site was off the beaten path and we wanted folks to stay on site to train we did what we could to provide food and water for as little as possible. Water was provided field side in two coolers. 6 cases of water were used per day. Ice was available on site free of charge.
- Breakfast was offered by the FFA for $13.00.
- Lunches were picked up from Publix and IGA for a cost of $200.00 a pop. This was offered for a donation. I came up with $8.60 in the black after reconciling the account on Saturday. The lunches were late on Saturday and the location could have been better to present them to the fighters. Possible even adjust the fighting schedule longer and eat AFTER fighting...
- Dinner. Sean Dwyer and Paul Padget were called in to create two low cost nutritious dinners. They had a budget of $600.00. Headcount for Friday was expected to be 30 and Saturday it was expected to be 50. The meals were meant to be buffet style with servers to ensure correct portions.
  - * Friday Roasted chicken, sweetened carrots, breads and watermelon were served. Everyone had a half chicken there were 50 pieces... I saw only two left at the end of the night.
  - * Saturday Roasted pork shoulder, grilled seasoned sweet potatoes, Cole slaw and sweetened ricotta cheese in a wine reduction. We had quite a few pork shoulders not eaten. Spaghetti Oleo was served as an alternate dish for both days for folks who had allergies.

Folks who ate were asked for a simple donation. The donations collected were divided between Paul and Sean. Both cooks were happy. The seed money was replaced. There are probably a few more points to this AAR but presented is a LOT of information

MISSING PIECES:

- Classrooms. The facility had the space for classes and displays. We attempted (as an after thought) to fill the void with viable classes directly related to Armored Combat. Classes on MoLs, Fighting garb and Marshal updates were planned. This area needs a deliberate "planned" approach.
- Vendors. We did not incorporate any vendors nor plan for them. This area can be developed.

Moorhaven Meeting Report

Report by Katherine of the Doves

Moorhaven Regum

The fighters are working very hard to improve their skills, up their armor and garb. Our artisans are working on their own crafts and learning all kinds of new things. We are hoping to go back to in-person meetings soon. More information on that to follow. Our accounts are in balance and we are in the black.

Old Business:

Warriors Games: Jorunn is looking for help with site set up and clean up. Otherwise, she is ready to put on the event. Jorunn requested money be appropriated for meats to be served at the potluck, as it has been canton tradition to have that provided. Seiffrid mentioned that as Autocrat of the 2022 Warriors Games, he had a budget of $70 for that item. Ingvar proposed raising that item to $100 due to inflation, and the motion was seconded and unanimously approved. Jorunn asked for information regarding the outdoor and indoor games and who will run those events. Seiffrid mentioned that in years past Adendra has provided all the outdoor equipment and run the games, that she likely would do so again. Seiffrid stated that he has further indoor games for the populace as needed. Jeremea offered to be Hall Steward and handle the indoor activities and set up for feasts.

Atlantian Fall University: Constantia reported that University 2023 was not possible as the hall was already booked. However, she already booked the American Legion Hall and the Harleyville Community Center for September 14, 2024, to host the University next year. More details to follow next month.

New Business:

Tourney of Manannan mac Lir: Maddalena reported that she still needed official approval to contract for Manannan. As such a formal vote was carried and unanimously approved for her to act as Autocrat for the event. Maddalena stated she will be working with Teagan to aid her in her first Autocrat event. Elizabeth will be working with Constantia to work as Feast-officer for her first event. Jorunn offered to put the event up on the website when she is ready. The tentative date is being set for the traditional date of January 27-28, 2024. Nottinghill Coil has notified her that they will not be hosting their investiture on that date to allow for it to happen independently. Seiffrid advised her to go ahead and Spike the event soon to lock it in and she can compose a budget later to present at a future meeting.

Memories From The Past

Fond memories of more than 3 decades ago...

I had asked this lovely lady for a token that might inspire me in the coming tournament. This was a first for many of us in those days, for she was the wife of my good friend (and sparing partner)...but in those days a favor was as good as a ring between lovers. Oh, the wagging of tongues!

But then, we lived at the edge of the Known Worlde and were creating new ancient traditions that still live on, much to the consternation of some. Make your own traditions, write your own story.

I still have that token, and the wellspring of memory that floods when I touch it again brings to life the seeds of my youth; lush and full is the meadow of my memory where still dances the inspiration of great honor.
