Meet the new Pelicans

Greetings to the Mountain!

Today I write to you in good tidings and well wishes! My latest voyage back to Hidden Mountain's Silver Chalice was a glorious and momentous occasion with not only one but three peerages! TWO of which were the Mountain's own subjects; Master Erik "Moose" Norton of Hellsfjord and Maestra Katherine of the Doves. So many people stepped in to help show their love for both and I would like to showcase their elevations.

First let's talk about the hospitality area that was set up for both vigils. Baron Ingvar put out a spread everyone was delighted for. Syr Bevan was very kind to not only bring the shade but to put it up and take down. Thank you to both!

Their Majesties saw fit to give Norton a writ over the summer at Warrior's Games so he was aware of what the day would bring. They wanted to make sure that his lady; Baroness Mistylla would be able to witness the occasion. Norton's garb was made by her.

During morning court Their Majesties called Baron Norton before Them to see if he still wanted to sit vigil. He did and Their Excellencies, Baron Hrothgar and Baroness Isabella escorted him to his vigil tent to prepare for the day. During his vigil several worthies stepped up to speak to Their Majesties and the populace of why Baron Erik Norton was ready to be a Pelican. Mistress Alisoun spoke for the Laurels, Syr Vladimir spoke for the Chivalry, His Highness Ragnar spoke for Masters of Defense, Duchess Briana spoke the words of Countess Aysandra, and Master Geoffrey (Bish) spoke for the Pelicans. Mistress Adendra, Dame Morwenna, and Baroness Mistylla assisted with the handwashing ceremony.

During evening court Baron Norton was called to present himself before Their Majesties and answer their call to see if he still wished to join the Order of the Pelicans after sitting in contemplation all day. His answer was a resounding yes. At this time the Order was called forward to witness. He was given a cloak and a cap of maintenance (I do not have a note of the makers). Mistress Adendra presented to Their Majesties a medallion that she had made for him to start his own legacy. His beautiful scroll was crafted by Mistress Tegan. At the end when Master Norton had just taken his oath and was about to greet his new Order; his son Lord Zachary spoke some words that brought tears to all eyes.

Now back to morning court. Their Majesties herald Master Hagar called out that They had forgotten the children! Her Majesties called out that someone needed to think of the children. (This is when Katherine started getting confused and tried asking me through sign language what was going on.) They then called her up before Them. It wasn't until she was sitting on Their Majesties bench that she realized that the Pelicans were still standing there. She was in shock...she chose on her ICOP to keep it a secret and we did! Their Majesties escorted Miss Lady Katherine to her vigil tent and asked her to prepare for the day. During her vigil several worthies stepped up to speak to Their Majesties and the populace of why Lady Katherine was ready to be a Pelican. Master Geoffrey (Bish) spoke for the Laurels, Countess Jane spoke for the Roses, Syr Bevan read words from Duchess Syr Signy, His Highness Ragnar spoke for the Masters of Defense, Mistress Asta spoke for the Pelicans, and Lady Diana spoke for the children. Lady Diana's words brought tears as she spoke of growing up and memories, she had with Miss Lady Katherine. Mistress Adendra, Mistress Cecilia and Mistress Asta assisted with her handwashing.

During evening court Lady Katherine was called to present herself before Their Majesties. Of course, as a pied piper of children she was surrounded by children of all ages and candy was tossed for all to enjoy! Their Majesties asked her if after sitting in contemplation all day was she still of a mind to join the Order of the Pelicans. She was and the Order was called forward. She was given a cloak and hood from Mistress Asta made by Maid in Atlantia and presented by Mistress Typhanie. She was also given a Cap of Maintenance made by Maestra Madelena and a circlet made by Lord Volckhart both commissioned and presented by Lady Esme. Mistress Asta presented a medallion made for her to start her own legacy with. After she spoke her oath to the Kingdom the scroll was presented! Her scroll is stained glass made by Dame Cyneswith. I would also like to add in that Lady Esme helped me all the way through the planning stages and day of for Katherine. As Katherine's POC, this would not have been as well put together without her.

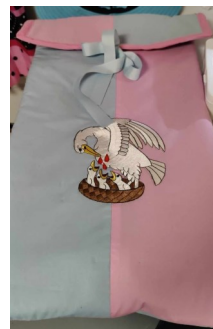

As a special thank you, I wanted to list the teenagers that came to my aid to erect Katherine's vigil tent; Lady Diana and Lord Curtis (who led the crew), Zachary (who received his AOA during evening court), Lady Rhiannon and Lady Hannah. I thought it was really special that those who grew up with Lady Katherine were helping and only one of them knew what it was for. All thought it was cool when they found out who was sitting inside.

As a retired Baroness of Hidden Mountain I couldn't have been happier to have been a part of this day at Silver Chalice.

Mistress Maria Beatriz de la Morra is a long time member of the Barony of Windmaster's Hill where she is known for her helpfulness and willingness to assist in all things.

Her vigil was organized by her many friends who schemed and planned while managing to keep the surprise of the elevation from her.

The Vigil Book was made by Thora

The medallions were made by
Christopher Nowland and Rachel Kay

The garments were made by Hillary Brewer, Rowan, by way of Baroness Amani, Tarpus by Elizabeth Moss, hand towel by Azza (Zoe Kun Williams)

All the time and care that went into her Vigil and Elevation is a tribute to the high regard she is held in by her friends and peers.

From Their Excellencies

Baroness Isabella Arabella
Daughter

Baron Hrothgar Ravensson

Greetings unto the mountain,

Silver chalice was a wonderful success. The weather turned out to be beautiful. There were smiles and laughter everywhere we looked. It was good to see deserving people get recognition.

We would like to give thanks to the staff and everyone that had a (big or small) part in putting this great event together, thank you to the autocrat the feast Stewart the Marshalls the MOLs and everyone that helped. We were honored to have the Majes-ty's and his Highness in attendance for such a fun event.

We now set our gaze towards the war of the wings, which is shaping up to be an awesome event. We look forward to seeing all of you there (that can make it)... stay safe and be well; until we meet again.

Dear Beda Venerabilis

Beda venerabilis

From Nuremberg Chronicle, 1493

Dear Beda, Who is right? I say Halloween came from Roman traditions, but my partner says it originated in Ireland.

Samhain was considered the threshold to the season of Death. Celebrated on the last day of October by the Celts, who lived 2,000 years ago in the area that is now Ireland, the United Kingdom and northern France. They believed the dead returned to earth on Samhain. On that night, people gathered to light bonfires, offer sacrifices, and pay homage to the dead. It was also an agricultural festival celebrating the time of year when “the summer goes to rest”. It was a period of “supernatural intensity” where the force of darkness and decay were said to be abroad, emerging from ancient barrows. Revelers often disguised themselves in animal skins to deceive these spirits.

Samhain was a liminal, festival, a separation between “summer and winter, lightness and darkness” when the normal order of the universe is suspended and ritual transition and altered states were expected.

Celebrants joined Druid priests to light a community fire using a wheel that would cause friction and spark flames. Participants took a flame from the bonfire back to their home to relight the hearth, which was believed to provide protection for the home. To honor the departed, appease hungry spirits and protect the living, food was left out on doorsteps and forest edges. In later centuries, people began dressing as ghosts, demons, and other malevolent creatures during Samhain, performing antics in exchange for food and drink. This custom, known as mumming, dates to the Middle Ages and is thought to be an antecedent of trick-or-treating. Continued on next page

In 1000 A.D. the church designated November 1 as All Souls' Day, a time for honoring the dead. Their celebrations resembled Celtic rituals, including bonfires and masquerades. Poor people would visit the houses of wealthier families and receive pastries called soul cakes in exchange for a promise to pray for the souls of the homeowners' dead relatives. Known as "souling," the practice was later taken up by children, who would go from door to door asking for gifts such as food, money, and ale. Young people took part in a tradition called guising, dressing up in costume and accepting offerings from various households. Rather than pledging to pray for the dead, they would sing a song, recite a poem, tell a joke or perform another sort of "trick" before collecting their treat, which typically consisted of fruit, nuts or coins.

Over time, as Celtic communities were conquered by Christianity many meanings behind the original Samhain changed, what the pagans called magic, the Catholics called miraculous. The night that preceded All Saints Day became known as All Hallows Eve, later Hallow Evening, and eventually, Halloween.

To answer your question, Halloween seems to have come from the Irish, Celtic Samhain celebration observed on October 31st. But it was also greatly influenced by the Catholic Church. In my opinion, you are both correct.

Now, stop arguing about it, and have fun celebrating Halloween, and remember, there will be Trick or Treating at War of the Wings!

Tear-Sea' Shore Meeting Report

Canton Meeting for Tear's-Sea Shore on 9/17/2023

Seneschal: Seiffrid reports nothing new coming down from the kingdom.

Exchequer: - No New Updates

Marshal: - Heinrich reports trying to have practice today but was rained out. Last month was the last practice. He also reports that he and a few others in TSS made it to the Top 8 at Sacred Stone Baronial Birthday. Fighting continues with zero injuries.

Minister of the Lists: - No New Updates

Arts & Sciences: - No New Updates

Webminister: - Jorunn will be updating the website sometime this week with the business meeting notes Charlotte sent, an update to the dates in the calendar. There are still access problems to the kingdom and baronial websites, but people can change browsers, check their Security software for VPN, or purchase a VPN and it does bypass the internet protocols of Spectrum. If anyone needs info on the Websites, they can contact Jorunn and she'll take a snip it and send.

Chatelaine: - Charlotte met with Kingdom Chatelaine and had a meeting with Hidden Mountain's Chatelaine. We discussed how we are changing the phrase of "newcomers" to "Novices & Newcomers". We discussed some of the events that were being planned for WOW, tea with chatelaines, making silk banners (per canton or barony, depending on the chatelaine). She requested that some chatelaines take part in the scheduling for showing newcomers/novices around the campsite. If they had interest in the things they were being shown, they could depart from the group. We discussed that she was in the works of creating sashes for Chatelaines, like bards, to ensure that newcomers or novices know who they can talk to who will be able to get them to the right thing that they're interested in.

Herald: Vacant

Old Business:

Tourney of Manannan mac Lir: Maddalena there is nothing new to update.

Canton Owned Regalia: Teagen reports there is nothing new but will be scheduling it soon

University 2024-- Constantia reports that her and Teagan went to fall university, spoke with the chancellor, and event coordinator. She learned that proceeds that are donated during university can be devoted to university, canton. The default for university is 25% automatically go towards kingdom. She learned that since the event is free and it heavily relies on donations given during that event, that as a group we needed to decide how we wanted to handle the donations. It was proposed that we split the proceed percentages as follows: 50% to canton, 25% to university and 25% to kingdom. It was seconded and passed with a majority vote. She also updated us on people coming in the teach classes. She's lining them up, however, does ask that if anyone has crash space that they would be willing to offer it would be greatly appreciated. She didn't exactly have a number of how many at this time but would need crash space for those that didn't want to make the 9- hour drive home.

Warriors' Games 2024: Seiffrid reports that we are still needing an Autocrat for Warriors Games 2024. Charlotte is considering it

Officer Reports:

Seneschal: Seifrid reports that his report was submitted on time. Nothing new to report coming down from the kingdom. The Chatelaine warrant was approved by the kingdom.

Exchequer: - Adendra reported that we have $4,439.34 in the account, which doesn't include the site deposit for Harleyville site deposit for Fall University 2024. We have received back the site deposit from Warrior's games and have give Mistress Teagan a reimbursement check for the materials for the banner making. Adendra has been working on getting the right paperwork submitted to add the correct people to the Canton bank account.

Marshal: - Heinrich reports that today was the most active practice this month. There was some activity before the business meeting and there were no injuries to report.

Minister of the Lists: - No New Updates

Tear-Sea' Shore Meeting Report

Canton Meeting for Tear's-Sea Shore on 7/16/2023

Officer Reports:

Seneschal: - Seiffrid reports that the second quarter report was turned in and Kingdom is happy.

Exchequer: - Adendra reported $4,613.02 in the account. We are waiting for a check to clear for the deposit for University 2024. She is actively working on the second quarter report and it's coming along nicely. Adendra is still waiting to get the bank accounts swapped to another bank since Wells Fargo is having issues with who can initiate people on and off accounts. She will be following up about changing banks as suggested and voted upon last month.

Chatelaine: - Charlotte reported for Ysabeau about attendance at Warriors Games. There were around 28 newcomers to Warriors Games (6 minors). She suggested to the group that she take over the role for Chatelaine so Ysabeau can take her position as Barony Chatelaine. It was seconded by the group and passed after she stepped away to grab a drink. Charlotte is the new Canton Chatelaine for Tear Sea Shores pending warrant approval from Kingdom.

Herald: Vacant

Old Business:

Warriors Games: Jorunn reports that there were about 70-80 attendees and $151 in donations gathered. She reports that it was a great day to have had even though it was hot and sticky.

Tourney of Manannan mac Lir: Maddalena reports that the current budget for the event, not counting the site deposit will be around $918. She is estimating attendance to be around 65 adults and 14 minors. She is anticipating around $548 in profits. Feast will be $12 per person. Budget has thus been approved. She does report that prizes have been donated, and that there will be a couple of tournaments and that she will need someone to be Hall Steward. Jorunn has volunteered to be hall steward. Tournaments will be 2 (maybe 3) heavy, 3 rapier tournaments, 3 Arts & Sciences competitions. Seiffrid asked the group about the need for site tokens, wondered if anyone had stepped up to start creating them, and volunteered to make the site tokens for this year's Tourney of Manannan.

Canton Owned Regalia: Tegan reports that they were anticipating doing a workshop day the last weekend of August, but there is a Nottingham Coill event the same day, so she is moving the date to September. She does have some supplies and will be waiting for more sales to ensure that we get our monies worth.

Canton Meeting for August: Seiffrid did investigate a place to rent out for August's Canton business meeting. The first option didn't work out and would be contacting Jeremea for follow-up on the use of the library mentioned a couple months ago.

Warriors' Games 2024: Seiffrid announced with the conclusion of the last warriors' games, we will be accepting bids for Autocrat for Warriors' Games 2024. Please contact the Seneschal if you are interested in making a bid.
